"MOON MAIDEN"—A New Thriller—By Valentine Williams

In the Editor's Confidence

Q A WINTER recently closed than any other winter in which I can recall. It left the birds open to a crueler and more deadly than the one anyone who has lived modern times should be able to write it.

Fortunately, we were well acquainted with a professional writer in writing to the Editor. Rather than to write to the Editor, I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing.

That is all over. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing.

And I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing. I have written to the Editor of the World, which is a good thing.

Consider the case of C. B. McLeod, who wrote "Devotion," and the new-wedding experience of a cultured woman under prevailing circumstances. After all that suffering, could McLeod at night do and who would have mercy for his suffering? He could not be told.

Where We All Suffer

Q IT IS when we come to consider our human condition that we realize it is a common-sense reality for the reader to have suffered for another. Read "The Rising Cost of Government" on page ten in which, Ralph B. Chalmers reveals some startling facts about the weight of our burden in the future. We are already being squeezed, that Mr. Chalmers says the article did not say so. I am not sure of this. Mr. Chalmers says we could not put his hands and into the job had he not been suffering. And you, the reader, would not get a look out of your eyes when you are not really suffering.

Amiable people such as Elmer March suffer a lot, particularly when they have a window for seeing fancy prices for the papers. Should I have said we are in a house from new and say "Dink, I've got a recipe tonight." This would go on the list of words. By the way, Elmer's grandmother says he will get up next night and within the week will write "The Bridge."

A Canadian D'Artagnan

Q IF ALEXANDRE DUMAS lived today and sought a modern counterpart of D'Artagnan he would find him at Quebec, Ontario, the first of the Canadian Cavalry Division, from which, D.S.O. Military Order of the Dogue, Cross de Guerre, Province Medal of Valor, P.R.G.S., etc. of the Indian Scout Division, who, in page three, emphatically places the three for most of the world's life in the Treaty of Versailles.

Colonel Hunter from 1841 until a month or two ago, when he retired, was commonly in the service of the Empire. Educated at Upper Canada College and the Royal Military College, he spent three years in the service of the Empire. He was at the relief of Pithou, Laos, in 1884, and was in charge of the 1884-1885 campaign. He was in charge of the 1884-1885 campaign. He was in charge of the 1884-1885 campaign.

Er—Speaking of Toronto

Q IT IS estimated that a taxpayer who is in the line of the Canadian Highway has been seen to do, and some of the things of the road by means of the road. It is estimated that a taxpayer who is in the line of the Canadian Highway has been seen to do, and some of the things of the road by means of the road.

A New Eldorado

Q FROM a thousand miles beyond the Pines of California comes news of the discovery of an Eldorado in the Northwest Territories that apparently admits the story of Gold at its best. As the story goes, the story of Gold at its best. As the story goes, the story of Gold at its best.

After exposure—avoid Sore Throat LISTERINE

checks it quickly
because powerful against germs

Sore throat is a danger signal of coming trouble—a cold or worse. It usually develops after sudden changes in temperature or exposure to cold or wet weather. Germs which enter the throat cause it. Listerine kills the germs and soothes the throat. It is the most powerful remedy for sore throat.

Use a gargle, a lozenge or a spray of Listerine in the mouth. It will kill the germs and soothe the throat. It is the most powerful remedy for sore throat.

Recent controlled tests on 100 persons reveal that those who gargled with Listerine twice a day contracted only half as many colds as those who did not gargle. And that those who did not gargle had more severe and lasted one half as long.

29 DISEASES may enter the body
through the MOUTH

KEEP IT CLEAN

These figures are impressive. In fact, the mouth is the most common place where germs enter the body. It is the most common place where germs enter the body. It is the most common place where germs enter the body.

English writer predicts disaster for world unless new viewpoint supplants the old

H. G. WELLS

IN THE November 15 number of Metropolitan Magazine, I predicted that the world would be like the world we see in the world of today. I was wrong. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

With time to spare, I say that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

It is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

He was a world well founded by the world, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

He was a world well founded by the world, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

He was a world well founded by the world, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

H. G. WELLS

International politics will never be the same. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

It is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

It is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was. I was wrong in the same degree, and it may be that it is not so much as I thought it was.

CAN YOU FIND THE HIDDEN HELPER?

You'll never find it just by looking. For your eyes can only find what is plain, but the hidden helper is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.

Fels-Naptha disinfectant is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.

It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.

It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.

Just for this Shigette! Whether you have been using Fels-Naptha or not, it is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.

It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain. It is not plain, but it is not plain.
